Democratic Congressmen Lining Up on Behalf of Old Leader From Missouri

By C. S. ALBERT.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23. — The few Democratic members of Congress who have returned to Washington since the elections preparatory to the opening of Congress on Monday, December 7, are lining up in behalf of the reelection of Speaker Champ Clark to the sixty-fourth Congress. Up to the present time there has not been a voice of opposition heard against the Missouri congressman's reelection, and it is not expected that there will be any when the first session of the sixty-fourth Congress convenes in December, 1915.

From the very latest returns the Democrats will have a majority in the next House of over 30, and it is not believed that they will have any great trouble in passing whatever legislation is mapped out for them. Of course, they will have to run up against such old-timers as "Uncle Joe" Cannon, who has been reelected, and several other Republican "war horse" who went down to defeat in the elections of 1912.

But the Democratic party in the next House will be minus the leadership of Oscar Underwood of Alabama, who has been elected to the Senate from his state and will take his seat in the upper branch of Congress in December, 1915.

Representative Claude Kitchin of North Carolina, as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, will probably be called upon to fill the place of Democratic leader made vacant by the elevation of Mr. Underwood to the Senate. Mr. Kitchin is regarded as the best rough and tumble debater in the House, but he has not the qualities of a leader possessed by Mr.
Underwood and it will be interesting to observe his handling of the Democratic majority. But he will have the assistance of a number of strong lieutenants to help him in his work.

Representative "Jim" Mann of Illinois will continue to lead the Republican cohorts in the sixty-fourth Congress. The recent elections returned a number of Republicans to Congress whose faces have been missed during the present term. With the skill that has always characterized him, Mr.
Mann will do everything in his power to place obstacles in the path of the Democratic majority and make political capital for his party which will be used in the presidential campaign.

WAGON SOLDIERS
SPRING SURPRISE
ON THE MARINES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
Field Artillery, 7th Marines, 6.
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 7.— A hard-fought football game on the Cavalry gridiron yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory of the 1st Field Artillery over the Marines by the margin of a goal from touchdown. This is the second time these two teams have clashed this season. In the first game the Marines scored two touchdowns and a goal from touchdown, and held the Artillery scoreless.

The Field Artillery team showed considerable improvement in their offensive tactics—and played better than in any other game so far this year.

In the first half the wagon soldiers were greatly outplayed by the sea soldiers. The latter were more versatile in their means of attack, gained first down seven times to their opponents' four, and made good on four out of seven attempts at the forward pass, one of which, a clever pass from Jeschke to Wagner resulted in a touchdown. Wagner was across the goal line when he received the ball.
This happened first before the close of the first half.

The artillerymen started the second half with a vim that for a time swept the visitors off their feet. White, the big Marine full back kicked off to McNichol who received the ball on his ten yard line and ran back 13 yards. Three line bucks gained 8 yards, and with 2 yards to go on the fourth down, Harris tore around right end for a 44 yard gain, the longest run of the game. Harris carried the oval 2 yards, and Palmer 18 more for another first down. With only six yards to go the Artillery were held for downs, but luck was with them, for the Marines' first play was a forward pass which Bodner intercepted. Bodner was not downed till he reached the seven yard line. In three downs the ball was carried over, Hall making the touchdown. Palmer kicked goal.

From this time on the game was nip and tuck. Luck had deserted the Marines. All of their eight forward passes in the second half were failures, and they made but one first down in the last two periods.

The line up:
First Field Artillery—McNichol, le.; Reems, lt.; Cleverly, lg.; Fling, c.; Berger, rg.; Slagel, rt.; Miller, re.; Palmer, q.; Harris, lb.; Cunningham, rh.; Bodner, Hall, f.
Marines—Cronin, le.; Granger, lt.; Booher, lg.; Wender, c.; Boss, rg.; Boyer, rt.; Wagner, re.; Rogers, q.; Axton, lb.; Jeschke, Cronkhite, rh.; White, f.
Touchdowns—Wagner and Hall.

PROF. JAGGAR IS SNOW-BOUND IN MAUNA LOA CLIMB

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
HILO, Dec. 4.—Professor Jaggar, who started out on Wednesday evening of last week, went around to the Kona side of the island and made an attempt to reach the summit of Mauna Loa from that part of the world.
He got under way on Thursday and, after a stiff climb and after encountering great obstacles, was at last caught in a big snow storm that absolutely prevented him from getting to the crater edge. The snow storm was so severe that the professor had to stand in the shelter of some rocks and wait for daylight. He was snowbound and was also handicapped by the instruments he was packing along.
Finally he had to return to the foot of the mountain and put up at Miss Paris' home, where he arrived on Saturday evening.

In the meantime a party had left the Volcano House and proceeded to the summit of Mauna Loa via the new trail, which is said to be easy to follow on horseback. The party which reached the summit declares that the crater of Mokuawao is a mass of molten lava and that the whole area is seething and throwing up fountains of lava. Two fountains in particular rise to a height of over 400 feet. The whole crater is said to be more active than Kilauea at its best.

Snow surrounds the crater and the effect at night is magnificent. The flames are reflected on the snow and the sight is a wonderful one. Other parties have also made the ascent and they describe the view as marvelous.

Professor Woods, of the volcano research staff, intends to proceed to the summit and spend four or five days there studying the crater and its moods. He will take a tent and a complete camping outfit.

On Tuesday afternoon last the outbreak could be clearly seen from the railroad bridge over the Wailuku river.
The smoke and reflection of the flames shot straight up into the sky for a tremendous height and hundreds of people watched the spectacle. On Wednesday rain again fell and the clouds cut off the wonderful display.

From all around the island come stories of how the eruption can be seen and of how the smoke and flames shoot up into the air for thousands of feet. In some localities the rain clouds have prevented the wonderful sight being observed, but most people have traveled to more favored localities and from those places observed the display.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Time it!—"Pape's Diapepsin" makes your upset, bloated stomach feel fine in five minutes

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.
A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.—advertisement.

speed in getting men to a forest fire is reported from Oregon, where on one of the national forests, a ranger went to town, hired ten men, and got this force to the fire twelve miles away within 48 minutes after he was notified by telephone.
